ESHLEMAN FAMILY

by

Ina Eshleman

INTRODUCTION

Among the many Swiss and German peoples who left their European Homelands during the American Colonial periods, to settle in South-eastern Pennsylvania, were a number of the Eshleman family, who numerous decendants are now scattered in various sections of the United States, particularly in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana.

The writer has attempted to gather and compile as complete an Eshleman family record as possible. Following the emigration from Switzerland of the original eighteen men and two women, of whom we have record through their descendants from the time of early American history to the present time. This Record contains all data obtainable regarding direct descendants, their wives, adopted children, etc. presenting all of them separately in their respective family trees, with all information securable through conversations, correspondence, and other forms of research.

Here the writer would like to pay tribute to his father Joseph Eshleman, who began this research and was responsible for the writers interest in following it through. From 1863, when he moved to Indiana, he became seperated from his relatives and had very few contacts with any of them aside from his own family circle until 1900, when he learned there were others of the family name living within 40 miles of his home, near Bremen, Indiana. He met some of them, found them much interested in family connections, and plans were made for further acquaintance.

In 1901 a group of 65 met at the home of Abraham Eshleman on his farm located between the two lakes known as Adam and Eve's Lakes, about four miles northeast of Wolcotville, Indiana. In this vicinity lived several Eshleman Families.

At that time there was no way of knowing if these families were related to the writers father, but it has since been established that Joseph Eshleman, Father of the above mentioned Abraham, was first cousin to Joseph, the writers father. Cousin Joseph was several years older than my father, and had died some time previous to this family gathering. This group of Eshleman families met annually quite regularly for an annual family reunion for nearly 40 years, until World War II.

In 1921 in Ohio another organization was formed by descendants of the writers Grandfather, Joseph Eshleman, and in 1938 a third organization for reunions in Elkhart was formed by a younger generation of descendants of the writhers father, which also disintegrated because of the distantly scattered membership. These three organizations have now been united into one group. Under each of these organizations the writer had been elected Family Historian, no doubt because to others it seemed a TASK,--to the writer,---a hobby.

COMPILERS RETROSPECT

This family record is now, 1951 A.D., being prepared for the printers after spending much of my spare time over a period of the past 50 yrs. in research for the material to compile such a record.

I was inspired to compile such a record as early as 1900 when I was 26 years of age. First by the retrospect of my childhood days when, as children in our parents home we were taught to hold them and each other in deep respect, as befits a home of love and harmony. In those early years our immediate family members were about the only relatives I knew, so I was much interested when I so often heard both Father and Mother speak longingly of their relatives back east in Ohio and Pennsylvania, where they had been born and grown to maturity. Father was born in Pennsylvania and Mother in Ohio. After they were married and three children had arrived, they moved westward in 1863 to Indiana, where the other eight children were born. At that time Indiana seemed far away from their former home and although I had never seen the relatives back east I was deeply moved when I heard my parents speak of them.

As we lived "out West" as Indiana was then considered, we youngsters were deprived of seeing many of our "eastern" relatives. I can faintly remember my Grandfather who was a minister. He came to live with us after Grandmother's death when he was about 80 years old. I do not remember ever having seen my Grandmother Eshleman.

I also remember my maternal Grandparents, Joseph and Mariah Fordamwald Yoder, as they visited us when I was about 6 years of age, which was 3 years after I last saw my Grandfather Eshleman. Gradually, as they came to visit us, I learned to know my Aunts and Uncles, and later still I was even more thrilled to become acquainted with some of my cousins, especially those of my own age or nearly so. I was 6 when the nephews and nieces began to appear,

When I was only 10 and four of the older brothers and sisters had married, my father left my oldest Brother, Daniel, in charge of the home farm and our family moved to Florida where father and an older brother of mine became engaged in the sawmill business on a fairly large scale. Mother, whom all of us loved dearly, was taken in death, and while father did the best he could for us, home without mother could never be the same for the 5 young children who were left.

As father re-established our home on the Indiana farm, the family gradually grew smaller. I was the last to marry. In these intermittent years father felt quite lonely but carried on correspondence with a cousin, John Eshleman, a merchant in Clarence Center, New York. The chief subject concerned that of RELATIONSHIP, in which both seemed to be deeply interested.

I now became absorbed with and idea. Whereas, I probably might never leave a financial fortune as a legacy for anyone, I might leave a legacy of family history that would have more than monetary worth to many. I am hopeful that through these records many of my relatives will be interested in their ability to trace their own ancestry back through the generations to their earliest ancestor in America. Also, the data furnished in this book about a number of Eshlemans, who were immigrants, should help disclose descendants not too distantly related.

These records are not complete or conclusive, as many omissions are unavoidable for want of reliable information.

Speaking of records, the Bible tells of Abraham begetting Isaac and of Isaac begetting Jacob and Essau, of Jacob begetting the Twelve Sons, and of these sons of Israel, Joseph was sold into slavery in Egypt, where he came into the lime-light to out shine all his brethern. But all the begotton were not mentioned even in the Holy Bible some had to be omitted.....that also is a characteristic of the Eshleman Family Record.

To those of you who become possessors of this Family Record, I call attention to the Eshleman who did his noble part in carrying on the family name by begetting 22 children. I regret the only part I can play in promulgating the family name is by recording the names of his descendants and many others of the name of Eshleman.

Now I have already mentioned at considerable length the subject that interested me in the dawning of a happy life.

During the last years of Father's life I had little more than was needed to eke out a modest living and make both ends meet. I was teaching school when I started my research and progressed very slowly. Then one day my father happened to tell me what he had been told when a boy of the murder of one of his grandfather's brothers.

A bright idea flashed into my mind---if this was a true story, as he believed, it would show on the court records--and other branches of the family would have some knowledge of the event, and through that story family connections might be worked out. I went to Harrisburg, Pa. and with assistance found in the files of the State House an account of the murder in a German newspaper published in 1806. From the State House, my wife and I went to the Dauphin County Court House and found in the files there an account of the arrest, trial, conviction, pronouncement of the guilty as charged, and the two murderers were sentenced to be hanged by the neck until dead, dead, dead. And may the Lord have mercy on their souls.

The information received from this official document and account of the murder of Jacob Eshleman older brother of my Great-Grandfather, and subsequent information obtained thereafter, and connected therewith, strange as it seems, furnished the reliable connecting link with other branches of the family which I had been seeking. It served the purpose of establishing the true relationship of several quite large though fragmentary descendants under one ancestral line, which up to that date had been questionable. Moreover, it established that Jacob Eshleman's father, Peter, who came to America October 1, 1754, was the immigrant ancestor of our line of Eshleman, and enabled me to trace our ancestry, for the first time, to its beginning in America. This Peter Eshleman, immigrant was my Great-Great Grandfather.

ORIGIN OF THE NAME "ESHLEMAN"

Not a great amount of information has been found concerning the origin of the family name; however, it is claimed that the name of the German-Swiss immigrants were originally derived from occupations they pursued.

Several theories are advanced as to how the name "Eshelman" was acquired. In it's original form of spelling, which was "Ieschlimann" which can be traced as follows:

1. Iesch, meaning the caretaker of farms
2. Le, meaning "the"
3. Mann, meaning "man".

Evidently the ancestor who gave us our family name was a man who took care of farms. This theory sounds reasonable as records indicate that all of the Eshleman immigrants after arrival in America took to farming. Other theories that have been advanced are not discounted as none of them disprove the one mentioned above.

The original form of spelling has been simplified in english to conform as nearly as possible to the German-Swiss pronunciation. The place of origin of the family name is believed to have been in the vicinity of Langnau, a town about 20 miles east of Berne, Switzerland, and the capitol of the country.

RETROSPECT

It has been well established that the German-Swiss immigrant Eshleman ancestors came from the vicinity of Langnau, Switzerland, for the same reason that many other Swiss came to America. They longed to escape their tyrannical over-lords and the religious in-tolerance of their homeland. Also, they wanted to join a pilgrimage then headed toward a land promising independence.

We can only faintly imagine the courage it took to leave their homeland, whose miseries and torments they hated, but at least understood, and face the unknown difficulties and trials in a much talked of country of which they had few real facts.

They had to have passage money, which in many cases had to be vouched for by a friend. Then they were subjected to inspection at a number of customs stations as they proceeded down the Rhine River. Finally they bade good-bye to the homeland and embarked on the perilous voyage that crossing the Atlantic in those days implied. At the end of the long and hazardous journey they landed in a country of new and strange customs and hardships. Immediately they must sign their allegiance to a government of which they knew little, then begin adjustment to surroundings where their ways of living and language seemed strange to their neighbors.

Records indicate that they became adjusted to the new way of life and solved the problem of earning a livelihood somewhere in the Susquehanna Valley quite readily and happily.

Detailed information as to the Eshleman immigrants mentioned in the foregoing had been exceedingly difficult to gather and for the most part is fragmentary, making the follow-through of descendants very incomplete. Some branches of the family are, of course, more complete than others, but the most complete record leaves much to be desired.

Of three immigrant Eshlemans there are partial records down to the 7th, 8th, and 9th, generations, with many gaps since no attempt was made by these families to keep data of the female descendants after marriage.

However, records of one family line have been most vigorously sought, both for male and female descendants of Peter Eshleman in 1754, since the writer is one of his direct descendants and collected considerable data about this family line before he realized that other immigrants from Switzerland by the name of Eshleman also came to America in the early days and were probably closely related to the said Peter.

After the writer had spent much time through many years accumulating information about the Eshleman line, he began receiving inquiries from others of the family name wishing to know if they were included in the family records. Then began a new line of research, trying to trace back the Eshlemans whose background seemed similar but were not of the Peter Eshleman line. It was interesting to note that my heartiest co-operation came from descendants of other than my own family. I regret that these contacts and interest came a quarter century after I had begun working on the Peter Eshleman line, as many who would have been of great assistance later were gone, leaving few records.

Trying to get information on families that go back 225 years into American history, is much more complicated and difficult than would be realized by one who has not attempted such a search. During many of the first generations in this country the major interest was that of taking care of the immediate family needs with long hours of labor and of great difficulty in keeping up correspondence or other contact with those not far away as we now reckon distance.

The writer will follow a regular pattern in compiling the data that is now available showing—

1. Name of individual and parentage.
2. Time and place of birth, marriage and death.
3. Marriage companion.
4. Number and names of children if any.
5. Extent of education, hobbies, etc.
6. Occupation achievements, wills if any.
7. Note-worthy sketches last known addresses, etc.
8. Brief family record of issue.
9. Last words, religious affiliations, cause of death, etc.
- X. Place of interment.

HISTORY

The writer's service as "Reunion Historian" for a number of years has been helpful in securing data in our own line of descendancy, so that those records are reasonably complete, - but the back-log about the other branches of the family in days long gone by continues to be very difficult to obtain.

For this reason it is hoped that readers will understand why not more than half of a complete record has been compiled and will appreciate the effort in getting that much of that has been gathered and put into form that can be preserved.

A systematic index numbering method has been used, giving each individual named a number, no two persons will have the same number. Figures from 1 to 9 are self explanatory; the letter X will represent 10, - A will be used for 11, B for 12 and etc. Number will be given the individual according to the rank in generation and in the immediate family. A4 indicated the fourth child of the 11th child.. B C would indicate the 13th child of a 12th child. A3X6X, Ira Eshleman indicates that Ira is the 10th child of the 6th child of a 10th child of Immigrant A, who was Peter Eshleman, the ancestral immigrant. TO-wit:

A	Peter Eshleman	11th immigrant
A3	Peter Eshleman, Jr.	3rd son of above mentioned Peter
A3X	Joseph Eshleman	10th Child of Peter, Jr.
A3X6	Joseph Eshleman Jr.	6th child of Joseph Sr.
A3X6X	Ira Eshleman	10th child of Joseph, Jr.

The general Index at the back of these records will assist any descendant of the original immigrants, whose family line the writer has been able to unearth to trace his genealogy back to Switzerland.

These Records will be divided into sections and arranged as follows:

- Sect. I Records of first five immigrants and (as far as obtainable) their descendants, in their respective family trees.
- Sect. II. Records of the 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th immigrants and their descendants in their respective family trees.
- Sect. III. Record of the 10th immigrant and Family Tree X
- Sect. IV. Record of the 11th immigrant and Family tree A.
- Sect. V. Record of the 12th, 13th and 14th immigrants and Family trees B, C and D.
- Sect. VI. Records of other immigrants and their descendants as far as obtainable, classified and Family Trees S & Y.

SECTION ONE

Family Tree No. 1.

Daniel Eshleman, parentage unknown, was born in the vicinity of Langnau, Switzerland, about 1675, exact date not given.

In Volume No. 4 of the Statutes at Large, page 147, in the records of Pennsylvania, is a list of nearly 100 names of persons who came from Switzerland and the Palatinate to Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, prior to 1718; among them is the name of one Daniel Eshleman or (Ashleman). We find in later records that he with others became a naturalized citizen because of his good religious behavior, and paid due regards and been obedient to the law and government of the Province, under an Act which reads as Follows:

"Be it enacted by the Honorable Patrick Gordon, Esquire, (Lieutenant) Governor of the Province of Pennsylvania, etc.- by and with the advice and consent of the freemen of the said Province, in General Assembly met, and the authority of same, that these persons that I have referred to above be and shall be to all intents and purposes deemed, taken and esteemed, His Majesty's Natural born subjects of his Province of Pennsylvania, as if they and each of them had been born within the said Province, and shall and may within the Province take, receive and enjoy and be entitled to all rights, privileges and advantages of natural born subjects as fully to all intents, connections and purposes whatsoever as any of his Majesty's Natural born subject, can do or ought to enjoy by virtue of being his Majesty's natural-born subjects, of his Majesty's said Province of Pennsylvania."

The above naturalization is only a part of Section 1, passed February 14, 1729/30 apparently considered by the king or crown on England but allowed to become a law by lapse of time, in accordance with the proprietary Charter. The preamble states that the persons naturalized arrived between 1700 and 1718 ; thus many persons today may ascertain that their ancestor arrived in this country before 1718

Presumable Daniel Eshleman was the first Eshleman immigrant to become naturalized American Citizen. At present we have no further record.

SECTION ONE

Family Tree No. 2.

Henry Eshleman, 2nd child of parents whose names are unknown, was born in 1705 in the vicinity of Langnau, Switzerland.

He came to America August 24, 1728, via S S Mortonhouse from Rotterdam, Holland with a shipload of 200 Swiss immigrants headed for America. (Do.327 and 328).

It is therefore evident that his descendants may trace their ancestry back to the opening up of civilization in the Susquehanna Valley about 1710. This may also be evidenced by records in Vol. 17, 2nd sed. Pa. Archives, pages 12, 16, 17, 29, 30, 85, 86, 88.90, 282, 284, 433, 439, 440 and 494. However, mention of Eshlemans on the move towards Philadelphia and the Susquehanna Valley much earlier than 1710 is made in European Records. Mention of Michael, Mennonist Deacon, and Margrith Eshleman is made, - but they apparently got no further than Nimewegen, Holland. Records indicate that they had lived in the vicinity of Langnau, Switzerland, about 20 miles east of Berne, Switzerland.

Henry Eshleman married Christiana Stauffer, and they had six children, five sons and one daughter. It is believed that Henry acquired land and became a farmer in Ralpho Twp., Lancaster Co., Pennsylvania. His children were all born in Ralpho Twp., mentioned above and they may be identified as follows:

- 21 Abraham
- 22 Isaac
- 23 Jacob
- 24 John
- 25 Henry
- 26 Elizabeth

Above is the extent of findings concerning this Family Tree, although it is quite probable that there may have been a descendancy of considerable numbers. This record is definitely incomplete.

SECTION O NE

Family Tree No. 3

Jacob Eshleman was born in 1707 in the vicinity of Langnau, Switzerland. He came down the Rhone River to Rotterdam, Holland, where he was one of 180 passengers to embark for America on the S S Mortonhouse which is recorded to have arrived at Philadelphia August 21, 1729. He signed the promise of fidelity to his new homeland.

His wife's maiden name was Barbara Barr, and they located in the vicinity of Strausburg, Conistoga, Twp. as recorded in the Biographical annuals in the Capitol Building, in Harrisburg, Pa. His wife Barbara died (unknown date) and he married a widow, Mrs. Catherine Eshleman Horst, - whose maiden name was Eshleman. He died in February 1758 when 51 years of age.

He willed certain articles to his second wife, and some things to his two brothers in-law, Martin and John, and a cow to Anna; the most of his estate went to his only son, J. Jacob Eshleman. Records indicate that at one time had owned considerable land in Conestoga Twp. adjoining the lands of Benedict Eshelman, also a large land owner.

31. J. Jacob, the son of 3 J. Jacob Eshleman, a millwright by trade, was born in 1742; He married Barbara Groff, and had eleven children, six sons, and five daughters, listed below.

	Born	Married
311 Jacob Eshleman	2-20-1768	Barbra Breckbill
312 John Eshleman	5-17-1770	1. Mary Weaver 2. Alice Groff

319 Elizabeth "	1786
31X Barbra "	1-13-1789	John Backman
31A Mary "	3-16-1791	David Miller

This is a meager beginning for a record of a Family Tree that took root in America. If the descendants kept records they have not come to light. One would suspect that there may be many descendants from this ancestor, and any information regarding same is invited, so that it may be included in the Master Record. This record is definitely incomplete.

SECTION ONE

Family Tree Number 5

5A John Eshleman, child of parents unknown, was born in 1712. He boarded the S S Britanica at Rotterdam, coming by way of London, arriving in Philadelphia with 268 other immigrants on September 21, 1731.

That day of arrival he signed the declaration of fidelity to his new homeland, The Government of Pennsylvania (# 3 col. rec. 414 and 415). He lost no time in reaching Lancaster, for it is stated in a publication by H. Frank Eshleman that he met Martin Mylin there, who eight days later paid for his passage and head money.

We have little or no further record. Shortly after the arrival of these early Eshleman immigrants that uneasiness spread throughout the various colonies, war ensued and during those troublous times trace of them has been lost.

5 B Christian Eshleman, born 1714 in Switzerland, Came to America in 1729. Further Record of him has not been found.

62 Benedict Eshleman was born 1712 near Langnau, Switzerland, as an immigrant he came to America 9-11-1732, at the age of twenty years; He married Anna Stehman, indications are that they had eight children also that the said Benedict acquired considerable land, some of which land he donated to the church which he helped to establish. He died 8-5-1780, at the age of about 68 years, and was burried in Conestoga Twp. Lancaster county Pennsylvania.

He was a son of (6) Peter Eshleman who with four younger children also came to America, to join the two older children who had already come, Magdalena, a daughter who came in 1731, and the said Benedict a son in 1732 as stated above; The father of (6) Peter arrived 8-28-1733 with 4 younger children, but we have no evidence that the Mother Magdalena was with them, (6) Peter died in 1749 at the age of 62 leaving a will, nameing his children as the benificeries.

SECTION FOUR FAMILY TREE NUMBER A

- A. Peter Eshleman, born in 1736 near Langnau, Switzerland of Swiss parentage, arrived in America Oct. 1, 1754, and located near Swatara in the Susquehanna Valley in what is now Dauphin County, Pennsylvania, the county in which the state capitol, Harrisburg, is located. His wife's name was Elizabeth and they had 5 daughters & 4 sons.

Apparently he resided in that vicinity the remainder of his life as records show that he bought 150 acres of land in that vicinity of Henry Funk of Lancaster, Pa. This land had originally been the property of Leonard Flininger, who sold it to Henry Funk, the deed to Funk being dated Feb. 10, 1741.

The following records are presented as proof that this Peter Eshleman is Ancestral Immigrant No. A (ancestor to the writer.)

1. The orphans Court Record, Docket C, page 134, Dauphin County, Sept. 18, 1806:-
"On Petition of Peter Eshleman who is the eldest brother of Jacob Eshleman of Derry Township, deceased, who died intestate and unmarried and without issue, but having brothers and sisters and heirs of deceased brothers and sisters, viz:
Henry Eshleman, a brother
Elizabeth Eshleman, intermarried with John Wengert, a sister.
Barbara Eshleman, intermarried with John Sever, a sister.
Heirs of Christian Eshleman, who was a brother had 3 children.
Heirs of Mary Eshleman a sister who had married Jacob Bowman-both deceased. Left 5 children.

Prays for an inquest."

2. Then is given the cause of Jacob's death, and court proceedings of the murder of Jacob Eshleman as given in the court record and a German newspaper, and Peter Eshleman was appointed administrator of Jacob's estate.
3. Distribution of the Estate of Jacob Eshleman of Derry Twp., Docket C, page 141, Jan. 10, 1807.

The 5 acre tract of land was awarded to Peter.

Cash assets were awarded as follows:

Peter	\$ 16.99 $\frac{1}{2}$
Henry	16.99 $\frac{1}{2}$
Heirs of Christian	16.99 $\frac{1}{2}$
Heirs of Mary Magdalena, Wife of Jacob Bowman	16.99 $\frac{1}{2}$
Elizabeth, wife of John Wengert	16.99 $\frac{1}{2}$
Barbara, Wife of John Saver	16.99 $\frac{1}{2}$
Frenny, wife of Jacob Severs	16.99 $\frac{1}{2}$
Heirs of John	16.99 $\frac{1}{2}$
	135.76

4. U. S. Gazette (Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 15, 1806) contains an account of the murder of Jacob Eshleman of Londonderry Twp. Dauphin County in a dispatch dated Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 6, 1806. It states that Jacob was single and lived alone.
5. Dauphin County Oracle and Harrisburg Adviser, Dec. 13, 1806, give report of Trial of James Jameson and James McGovern for the murder of Jacob Eshleman on Aug. 28, 1806, near Hummelstown. Same paper Dated Jan. 3, 1808 reports execution of murderers as "Monday Last."
6. More court records concerning the arrest, trial, conviction and sentence of punishment for the crime, etc. follows; this along with a traditional story that came to this writer through his father has identified this Jacob who was murdered as a brother of my Great Grandfather, who is known to have been the Peter mentioned as his eldest brother and who administered the estate of the murdered Jacob, as stated above.
7. Indenture March 12, 1762. Peter who (we are convinced) was the father of above mentioned Jacob (and designated as A), and likewise was my Great Great Grandfather, who immigrated to America Oct. 1, 1854. bought from Henry Funk of Lancaster County, Pa. 150 acres. This land had been surveyed for Leonard Elininger Aug. 7, 1738 on Swatora Creek, adjoining land of Christian Landis and George Adam Hoyle, containing 150 acres. Leonard Flininger had sold this land to Henry Funk Feb. 10, 1741.

April 28, 1775 Peter Eshleman purchased 1 acre 6 perch from Lawrence Ryder of Lebanon Twp. near Swatora Creek, near the farm of Christian Landis and this was paid for on June 17, 1775. This land was earlier deeded to Mary Dougherty by her husband, John Dougherty, April 25, 1756. She sold to Larenze Reuter, which sale was witnessed by Ulrich Eshleman.

Old tax lists show that Peter was assessed in 1755 in Lebanon Twp., Lancaster Co. (Lebanon County after 1813)

Peter Eshleman was born in Switzerland (as mentioned elsewhere) in 1730; he emigrated to Pennsylvania in 1754. His wife's name was Elizabeth. They had 4 sons and five daughters as noted below:

(Record of A3X6, Joseph Eshleman, Father of the Writer)

A3X6. Joseph Eshleman, Born 5-16-1832 in Dauphin Co., Pa. was the 6th child of his parents Joseph Eshleman and Margaret Miller Eshleman. During his early boyhood his parents moved to Wayne Co. Ohio, where the children grew up. When a young man he worked with a surveying outfit on land that is near what is now Chicago. There he met Sarah Shreffler, who became his wife 12-20-1855.

They had 2 children, the first a son, died at birth, May 28, 1857. The Daughter, Sarah B. was 9 days old when her mother died on 5-19-1858.

At that time Joseph a carpenter in Ohio, met and on 4-15-1859 married Barbara Yoder, daughter of Joseph and Mariah Fordamwalt Yoder. In 1864 they moved to Indiana with their 4 children Sarah, (by his first wife), Mary, Daniel and Joseph, Jr. They settled in German Twp., Marshall Co., Indiana, where 8 more children were born, by name:

Saloma Margaret
Martha
Benjamin
Barbara
Ira (the writer)
Amanda
Sophia
Wesley

In said German Twp. Joseph and his brother-in-law, John King, owned and operated a sawmill in partnership until the mill burned down, losing all their investment, within the first year of their residence in Indiana. King moved on to a far western state but Joseph, with his large family remained in Marshall County. With help from his wife's parents they bought a quarter section of land, described as the SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of Sec. 29, Twp. 35 N. range 4 E., located in German Twp. Marshall County, Indiana.

This land was covered with heavy saw timber, so Joseph set up another sawmill on this land and over a period of years nearly 100 acres of timber was cut (besides timber secured elsewhere), - so that he did quite well in the lumber business, at the same time clearing and farming 100 acres of farmland.

By this time Joseph had become well known and was considered as a man of good standing in his community. He had had thirteen children, four of whom had died at an early age, four had married and five were still at home, - when he sought a new field of adventure.

During the years on the farm he had donated lumber for the home schoolhouse, in District No. 1, and to build a schoolhouse $\frac{1}{2}$ miles south, known as the Branch Schoolhouse. In School district No. 13 he had sawed black walnut lumber for the Singer-Sweing Machine Co. and for the Studebaker Wagon Works, both of South Bend and for other customers in Goshen and Plymouth, as well as for the Pump Co. in Bremen, in Addition to other community custom sawing.

In 1886 he thought he saw a great opportunity in Florida, where he had already established his daughter Mary and her husband, Emmet Baird, in the lumber business, and he decided to set up a lumber business for himself with his son Joseph as partner in High Springs, Florida. So Daniel (His oldest son) took charge of the Indiana farm and the family moved to Florida, where he and Joseph Jr. engaged in the lumber business on a rather large scale. They arranged for the purchase of 11,000 acres of timber land, set up a mill and at times employed as many as 100 workmen.

Business was going successfully when Joseph Jr. was taken with typhoid fever and before he had recovered Joseph Sr. had pneumonia. Then several children got malaria which was prevalent in that region in those days, -and the strain and stress of taking care of her family became too much for Barbara, Joseph's wife, (and the writer's mother) and she became ill and died. She was buried in Florida in 1886.

The adventure in Florida became too much of a problem and Joseph, Sr. sold out his interests and returned to his Indiana farm in 1889, with his 5 youngest living children, including the writer. He remained on the farm until all of his children had matured and married. Then he sold the farm and for the remainder of his life lived with one or another of his eshleman children.

He died April 8, 1908, at the age 75 years, 10 months and 10 days, and was buried in the cemetery at Bremen, Indiana, in the family burial lot which he had bought years before. His last words were "Let me Rest."

SECTION FOUR

(Sketches of members of Family A3X6)

A3X62 Sarah Eshleman, was born 5/10/1858 in Wayne County, Ohio. When she was nine days old her mother died; her father remarried when she was nine months old, and she knew Barbara Yoder Eshleman as her mother through the years ahead. When there were three more children in the family they moved to Marshall County, Indiana. When almost 21 years old Sarah married John P. Stauffer, and they lived on a farm near Wakarusa with their daughter and four sons.

A3X63 Mary Eshleman. Born in Ohio, was one of the family to move to Indiana, where she grew up. During the time she was attending school at Valpariso, preparing to teach, she met Emmet Baird who was teaching her home school, which the younger members of her family attended. After her marriage both she and Emmet taught for a short time.

a Shortly after the birth of their first child, Joseph, they moved to Florida accompanied by her father, who set them up in the sawmill business, which they operated successfully for 35 years. They had 3 sons and 5 daughters, Joseph(Erva), Ira, Edith, Laura, Lena, Mary, Hattie and Emmet, Jr.

Her husband died Dec. 25, 1925 and she died Aug. 1, 1948 almost 88 years of age. The parents and five of their children are buried at Gainesville, Fla. where perpetual care of their burial lots has been provided.

A3X64 Daniel W. Eshleman, one of the family to move from Ohio to Indiana, remained in the home until he was 21, when he leased his father's farm and married Pena Matter in Aug. 1885. Pena died from typhoid fever in Sept. 1889, at the age of 25, leaving him with a small son and daughter John Hoshph and Bertha.

I In Aug. 1892 Daniel married Junia Etta Fisher, 19½ yrs of age. To this union were born 4 sons and one daughter namely: Ethel, Earl, Clyde, Forest and Boyd. His second wife died in January 1921 and thereafter he remained a widower, in rather poor health.

Daniel spent his first 30 yrs on the farm of his father; then he moved into Wakarusa where he and his brother Joseph managed a livery business., which they had bought. During that time he invested in a farm. Then he and Joseph sold out the livery business and built several large store buildings, which they rented; two yrs later (1899) they lost 3 buildings by fire, which ~~and~~ consumed one fourth of the town's business district. They then built larger brick buildings which are still in use.

Daniel died in 1898 at 76 yrs of age, having spent his ~~last~~ last 5 yrs in the home of his brother Ira, the writer. He left a will, naming Ira as executor, leaving his estate of $20,000 share and share alike to his living children and requesting burial on the family burial lot where his second wife and 2 children had been buried. He died from stroke and hardening of the arteries.

These two houses still stand and are used as homes.....The farm then owned by Ira's father is now owned by Noah Burkholder. Ira attended school in District No. 1 of German Township, Marshall Co., Indiana until 16 yrs of age. Then until 21 yrs of age (as was customary at that time) he helped with the farm work.

A3X643	Mary Ethel Eshleman married on 3-22-1913 to: Cletus Henry Hossler. 3 sons. Mary E. Eshleman Hossler died after an illness from Nov. 1963 to Feb. 1964. It was discovered by her Dr. that she had a tumor on the pituitary gland which was causing her blindness. She could not see out of her right eye at all. After undergoing surgery for this tumor in November of 1963 her convalescence was slow partly due to her age and partly due to the seriousness of the surgery. She had to take cobalt treatments and then in Feb. had 2 light strokes. The Second of which, put her back into the hospital. She was there about 2 weeks and I, her granddaughter, was with her when she breathed her last. She was in a coma and didn't know I was there and her passing was a peaceful thing. Before she had her first surgery she said, "I have lived a full and happy life, I've seen my children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. I'm old and tired and I can't see or get around well and I don't hear much any more and am ready to go any time the Lord wants me." I feel my self that she was sincere and death came not with fear and dread but as a friend.	6-24-1893 9-8-1891	2-4-1891	69½
